THE MORNING

TULSA DAILY WORLD

FINAL EDITION

CITY WATERWORKS CLOSED BY FLOOD

First Pictures of Tulsa's Worst Flood

DESPERATE EFFORTS MADE TO SAVE POWER: FIRE PERIL THREATENS

Widespread flooding in 1923 destroyed waterworks in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, wrecked transportation systems, left thousands homeless, and spurred citizens to lobby the Corps for flood control.