

Photo Courtesy Hopkins Photography

9 East Fourth Building

Federal Building

Spring 1968: Five hundred Tulsa District employees moved into Tulsa's old U.S. Post Office and Court House. Public sentiment opposed removing the deeply carved old name and substituting the sterile new name — "Federal Building" — but workers found out the letters were just glued on.

Photo Courtesy The Tulsa Tribune